Camp Mitchell Scholarship Fund

The cost of one session of Summer Camp at Camp Mitchell cost $425 per child. While this might cause a bit of sticker shock, Camp Mitchell has done their best to keep prices at a reasonable rate for lodging, staff, food and facilities, and their price is extremely competitive. However, as you can imagine the cost can still be hard for many families to swing in full. If you would like to make a donating to the Camp Mitchell Scholarship Fund, please place a check in the offering plate or our bookkeeper's box, with CAMP in the memo line.

And thank you so much for helping to send our kids to Camp Mitchell - it truly is a life changing experience.

Pantry Musings

Sunday is Pentecost, the birthday of the church, the day that the Holy Spirit gave the people worshipping in Jerusalem the ability to speak in tongues. They were charged by Peter, on that day, to declare the good news of their faith to all people. Quite a move for Peter, who was very exclusive in his view of who should hear about Jesus and the kingdom of God. He previously held that only Jews should know about the Way, But today, Peter sends everybody out to all of the nations to spread the word. This move, this shift in focus on Peter's part saved the faith -- the church -- so that you and I might know and believe. But, Peter's shift in focus did more than send people out; it made us all ministers to each other in ways that may not enter our awareness. This ministry is called the "Priesthood of All Believers" by some and first came to my attention under that particular name when I focused on the life and work of Martin Luther, the great reformer of the exclusionary and corrupt political, economic and religious institution of the medieval church in the 1500's. We are still priests to one another and to others outside of our daily circles, and to those we may not know. We may not realize what it is that we do to enable others. It is important to realize that our words and actions are important to others. Our faith is communicated whether we are aware of it or not. "We are all constantly serving others as priests of mysteries known to us and not to them. And we are constantly being served by those who know what we do not [William Countryman, Living on the Border of the Holy, p.4]." -- Ann Drake

Scripture Readings for Sunday, June 4, 2017

Numbers 11:24-30

Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again. Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, stop them!" But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit on them!" And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:
`In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

Psalm 104:25-35, 37

- 25 O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
- 27 There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.
- 33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- 37 Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!
