An information session on the EfM program will be held Sunday, July 23rd at 10 in the Parish Hall. Please join us then to learn more about what the EfM training can do for your spiritual learning and growth!

EfM is a four-year course of study that provides lay persons with the tools to move forward in Christian service, gain a deeper understanding of scripture, and acquire a stronger ability to think theologically.

The EfM seminar group, which is the nucleus of the Education for Ministry program, provides the spiritual community in which to study, pray, and reflect. Each seminar group consists of six to twelve participants and a trained mentor who meet weekly over the course of a nine-month academic year. These meetings are usually from two and a half to three hours in length.

Camp Mitchell Scholarship Fund

The cost of one session of Summer Camp at Camp Mitchell cost $425 per child. While this might cause a bit of sticker shock, Camp Mitchell has done their best to keep prices at a reasonable rate for lodging, staff, food and facilities, and their price is extremely competitive. However, as you can imagine the cost can still be hard for many families to swing in full. If you would like to make a donating to the Camp Mitchell Scholarship Fund, please place a check in the offering plate or our bookkeeper's box, with CAMP in the memo line. And thank you so much for helping to send our kids to Camp Mitchell - it truly is a life changing experience.

Servant Leadership School

Servant Leadership School is sponsoring a half-day workshop on August 5, 2017, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.. It will be led by Amanda Moore, D.Min and is entitled "Practicing Self-Compassion: Transforming Stress."

Ministry Team 4

As Jerusalem has informed you, I am taking over Ministry Team 4 and it is completely new to me, so I am asking for everyone's help. I know that we have already lost a few of our Team and will soon be losing more, so I am asking anyone if they would like to serve. Serving in some capacity one Sunday a month, in my opinion, makes me feel closer to my Church and the people who are there. If you can, and would like to help, just let me know what you would like to do. All help will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Claire Losardo

Pantry Musings

Today is Teri's last day with us. We are losing a close family member. You're the one who sets the table for us every Sunday morning. You give us the bread to eat and bless both the bread and the wine. We have grown up together in the past nine years. We as a congregation have developed a variety of programs and ministries under your administrative skills and nurture; from Bible study and book discussions to a mission in Guatemala and the related Art, Pray, Love, which not only raises funds for the mission but also reaches out to the art community. We have important programs like the Servant Leadership School and the Centering Prayer activities. E.f.M training gives people a background in biblical studies, church history, and theology; there are other programs and ministries. You in your wisdom and insight have been able to select people to take on the leadership of these activities and let them go providing minimal guidance as necessary. Under your leadership we have expanded our physical plant to include the Morgan House where a variety of community activities as well as church functions take place. You have grown in your abilities as a preacher from a timid beginner to an excellent user of your homiletic skills. In short you are a very fine preacher. Most of all you are a pastor. Your empathy and your compassion and your ability to observe patterns in our lives will be missed most of all, at least by me. It is in this intangible area of life that you have reached out to me and others, I am sure, and reassured us, comforted us, and walked with us in of struggles for life. We will surely miss you. Know that you are loved by many. - Ann Drake

SUNDAY SERVICE AND LITURGICAL INFORMATION

Scripture Readings for Sunday, July 16, 2017
9:00am Service will read Isaiah and lead the Psalm

Isaiah 55:10-13

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven,
and do not return there until they have watered the earth,
making it bring forth and sprout,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose,
and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.
For you shall go out in joy,
and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you
shall burst into song,
and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress;
instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle;
and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial,
for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Psalm 65: 1-14

- 1 You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; *
to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem.
- 2 To you that hear prayer shall all flesh come, *
because of their transgressions.
- 3 Our sins are stronger than we are, *
but you will blot them out.
- 4 Happy are they whom you choose
and draw to your courts to dwell there! *
they will be satisfied by the beauty of your house,
by the holiness of your temple.
- 5 Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness,
O God of our salvation, *
O Hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the seas that are far away.
- 6 You make fast the mountains by your power; *
they are girded about with might.
- 7 You still the roaring of the seas, *
the roaring of their waves,
and the clamor of the peoples.

- 8 Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; *
you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.
- 9 You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
you make it very plenteous; *
the river of God is full of water.
- 10 You prepare the grain, *
for so you provide for the earth.
- 11 You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; *
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
- 12 You crown the year with your goodness, *
and your paths overflow with plenty.
- 13 May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, *
and the hills be clothed with joy.
- 14 May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *
let them shout for joy and sing.

Romans 8:1-11

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law-- indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Matthew 13:1-9,18-23

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!"

"Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."
